

Motivated and dedicated Clinical Psychologist wanted for growing practice

About Us

We are a well-established, and progressive practice in the Sutherland Shire, with a strong reputation for delivering excellent client outcomes in a warm and friendly environment. With over a decade of history, we are continuing to expand due to a growing network of clients, referrers, and an excellent community reputation.

We are committed to helping our team reach their potential professionally and personally, and we provide all the support necessary for you to reach your goals in a caring, fun and supportive environment. You will also benefit from exceptional long term full time onsite admin support, aimed at making life much easier for you and your clients.

About the role

Our practice is expanding and we are looking for a personable, diligent and outgoing Clinical Psychologist to join our warm and welcoming team.

You will have the choice to work with children, teenagers, adults and/or couples. We also embrace a diversity of therapeutic modalities such as CBT, ACT, DBT, Gottman Therapy and Schema Therapy.

If you have formal DBT training that would be favourable, as would experience working with deliberate self-harm and/or Borderline Personality Disorder.

The role hours are flexible, and can be between 1 day per week and full time, with a preference for Saturday and/or after hours availability.

This role would suit someone who values a communication and organisation skills, and someone who prides themselves on providing quality clinical care and follow up.

Benefits

Fantastic remuneration is offered, and there is scope to be financially rewarded as you grow your caseload and excel in delivering quality clinical care and client retention. You also have the choice between being an employee, and using a fee split arrangement.

Whether you are an energetic Clinical Psychologist looking for an inspiring practice to leap frog years in your learning curve, or you are more experienced and want to expand your career opportunities and reach your true potential, we would love to meet you.
